

Reference for Mesa Community College Thor the Thunderbird Mascot Applicant

The below applicant is applying to be the Mesa Community College mascot, Thor the Thunderbird. Applicants must have at least one reference. The reference form must be completed by an MCC staff or staff member, not family or friends. By September 28, 2021, please submit this reference to Lora Lassitter (MCC building AS-136) in a sealed envelope or by email to lora.lassitter@mesacc.edu. If you have questions regarding this mascot reference, contact Institutional Advancement at 480-461-7475.

The applicant is required to represent Mesa Community College in a respectful manner, promoting the college with a positive image consistent with the goals and values of MCC. Applicants must possess the character, reliability, and maturity necessary to manage the demands of being the mascot. They must also be committed, spontaneous, entertaining, disciplined, in good physical condition, creative and responsible.

Based on the above criteria and your personal experiences instructing, advising or supervising this student, we would appreciate your candid assessment of the applicant's potential to represent Mesa Community College as Thor the Thunderbird.
