

ONLY IN AZ Only In Arizona
219,468 likes

Like Page Contact Us

6 friends like this

Posted in Arizona | August 15, 2017 | by Monica Spencer

10 Spectacular Hidden Gems In Arizona That Are Completely Free To Visit

If the best things in life are free, then we bet you are going to fall in love with the places on this list! You'll find incredible views and fun experiences all for free at some of Arizona's best hidden gems. Keep reading for details.

1. Grand Falls

Nick Allen/Flickr

Sometimes referred to as Arizona's chocolate falls, Grand Falls offers an impressive sight several times each year. After the monsoons and snow melt, you'll get to see roaring, milk chocolate-esque waters running in this remote location between Flagstaff and Leupp. And don't forget to check out our article highlighting Grand Falls.

Location: Google Maps

2. Hackberry General Store

Love Arizona?

Then sign up for our newsletter!

Enter your email address

SUBMIT

Recent Posts

The Small Town In Arizona Where You'll Never Be Bored

The Unforgettable Views At This Arizona Hotel Are Calling Your Name

The One Incredible Sand Dune Every Arizonan Must Explore

This Delightful General Store in Arizona Will Have You Longing For The Past

Shane Burkhardt/Flickr

Located in the teeny, tiny town of Hackberry, just off Route 66, you'll find a relic of the recent past at this gas station turned general store. Cars, souvenirs, and plenty of other collected items create an eccentric place that is worth the stop! Read more about it in our article about the Hackberry General Store.

Location: Google Maps

3. Horseshoe Bend

Jeff/Flickr

Aside from a humble sign and a dozen or so parked vehicles in a parking lot off Highway 89 from Page, you can easily pass by this hidden gem. Here, you'll get to see one fantastic view that is striking both on camera and in person.

Location: Google Maps

4. Hubbell Trading Post

11 Small Towns In Arizona That Are Anything But Boring

You Can Watch Planes Land At This Underrated Restaurant In Arizona

Here Are The Oldest Photos Ever Taken In Arizona And They're Incredible

This Unique Trail Lets You Explore The Best Of This Arizona City

There's An Incredible Meteor Shower Happening This Week And Arizona Has A Front Row Seat

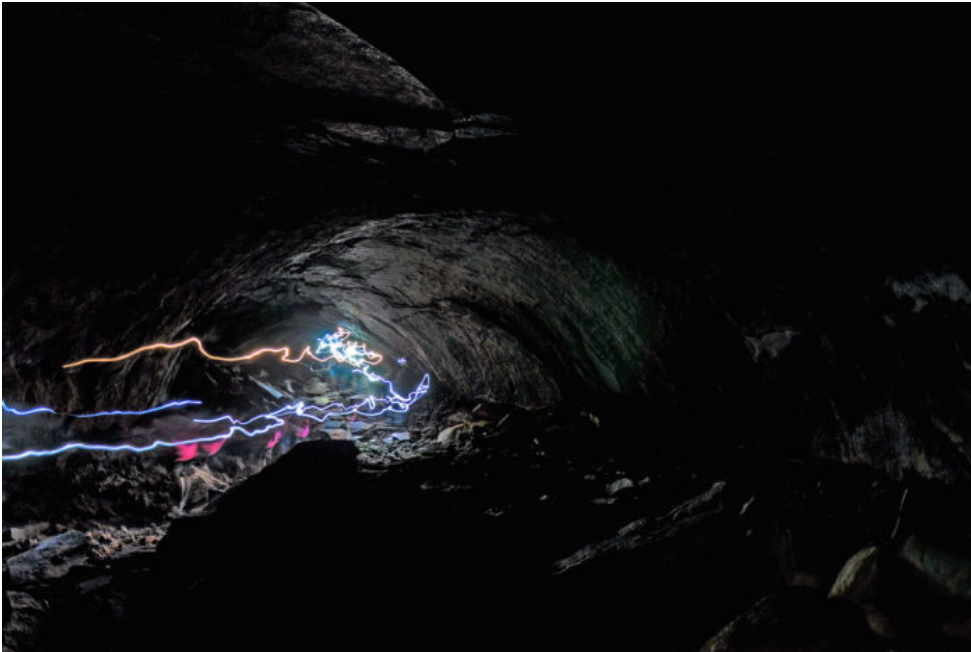

Dirk Hoffman/Flickr

Located on the Navajo Nation in Ganado, you'll find this incredible historic trading post that dates to 1878. A walk through the trading post, visitor center, and grounds is free but if you want to tour the Hubbell House, just pay $5. You can read more about the trading post in one of our previous articles.

Location: Google Maps

5. Lava River Cave

Coconino National Forest/Flickr

This lava tube is more than 700,000 years old but you will be astounded at just how incredible the lava ripples along the cave walls still appear after all these centuries. Located off the road between Flagstaff and Valle, you'll find this chilly cave is perfect for all the geology lovers in your party. Read more about visiting Lava River Cave in this article.

Location: Google Maps

6. Little Painted Desert County Park

Monica D. Spencer/Flickr

This little overlook offers some of the prettiest views you will ever lay your eyes on, all without having to spend a dime (aside from gas money, that is). Enjoy a quiet environment and beautiful views at this once park near Winslow. You can read more about it Google Maps

Location: in this article.

7. Navajo Code Talkers Exhibit

Melanie Wynne/Flickr

A fast food joint is probably the last place you would expect to find a small museum exhibit but that's exactly what you'll find at this Burger King in Kayenta. The personal collection of this franchise owner, the Navajo Code Talkers exhibit offers a side of history with your burger. Read more about the exhibit in one of our previous articles.

Location: Google Maps

8. Rose Garden at Mesa Community College

Mesa Community College/Facebook

If you're looking for a quiet place to walk during the cooler months, you will love visiting the Rose Garden at Mesa Community College in Mesa. Most people don't realize this garden is home to over 9,000 rose bushes, making it one of the largest in our part of the country. Read more about the garden in this article.

Location: Google Maps

9. Roy Purcell Murals

CEBImagery/Flickr

Chloride is one of the quirky desert towns out in Arizona's rural regions that often gets passed up for bigger attractions. However, definitely make a stop in town to see these murals in the foothills of the Cerbat Mountains. You can find details about visiting in one of our previous articles.

Location: Google Maps

10. St. Anthony's Greek Orthodox Monastery

Trevor Huxham/Flickr

This lovely monastery is located outside Florence in a quiet, rural desert setting. Here, you'll find a peaceful area for walking, contemplation, and enjoying some beautiful art and architecture. Find out the details you'll need to visit the monastery at this link.

Location: Google Maps

Craving some food during your trip? Check out some of our favorite roadside dining options in These 10 Roadside Restaurants In Arizona Are Worth Stopping For. You're going to love them!

492
SHARES

f Share

P Pin it

ARIZONA IN YOUR INBOX

Love Arizona? Get more stories delivered right to your email.

Enter your email address

Sign Up →

From The Web

Sponsored Links by Taboola

Tempe, Arizona: This Brilliant Company Is Disrupting a $200 Billion Industry

EverQuote Insurance Quotes

Do You Know What Your Last Name Means?

Ancestry

Don't Buy Furniture Until You See This Site

Wayfair

17 Car Cleaning Tricks Local Dealers Don't Want You to Know

KiwiReport

What Tiger Woods' Ex-Wife Looks Like Now Left Us With No Words

Hyperactivz

Symptoms of Cancer You Should Never Ignore

Cancer Signs Sponsored Ads

Follow me on:

Monica Spencer

Monica is a Diné freelance writer and the Arizona staff writer for Only In Your State. She currently lives in Phoenix with her boyfriend and their herd of cats. You can reach her at [mspencer@onlyinyourstate.com](mailto:m Spencer@onlyinyourstate.com).

0 Comments

Sort by Oldest

Add a comment...

Facebook Comments Plugin

OnlyInYourState.com

Only In Your State Copyright © 2017. All Rights Reserved

Contact Us - Get Featured - DMCA - Terms & Privacy

