The now nearly 9,000 rose bush garden was made possible by the partnership between Mesa-East Valley Rose Society and Mesa Community College. It's the largest public rose garden in the desert southwest and is the only significant rose garden started since 1974.

The Mesa landmark is open 24/7 so you can enjoy it any day or time. There are signs posted throughout the garden with information on the pretty plants.

You can also take a one-hour guided tour. Click here for more information.
