Romero Funeral Home in Belen has been in business for nearly 84 years. Three generations of the Romero family, spanning eight decades, has carried on a tradition of providing personal care and attention, for not only the deceased, but for those left behind.

The funeral home offers several different packages to meet people's specific levels of financial ability, and also offers a 10 percent discount for veterans.

Dicky and Suzanne Romero have continued to keep the Romero tradition strong. They both are the current owners of Romero Funeral Home.

Suzanne holds an intern license in arranging/directing, while Dicky holds intern licenses in both arranging/directing and embalming.

Rosalinda "Rosa" A. Ortiz is the funeral service practitioner for Romero Funeral Home, and graduated from Mesa Community College in Mesa Arizona in 2007 with a degree in mortuary science.

"Suzanne and I are humbled and honored to be voted 'The Best Funeral Home in Valencia County' once again," said Dicky Romero. "We are truly blessed by the families who have entrusted their loved ones to our care.

"We are equally blessed to have the most caring and compassionate staff in Rosalinda Ortiz, Susan Ortega, Trish Garcia-Sals, Marissa Martinez, Madison Craver, Bill Britton, Aubrey Tucker, Marie Sanchez and PJ Vital. Thank you, Valencia County!"
