

https://www.pinalcentral.com/florence-briefs/article\_4d356e17-dce7-5345-a45d-bafc2df04610.html

Florence briefs

Mark Cowling

Dec 13, 2022

Cemetery walking tour

Join the Pinal County Historical Museum any third Saturday at 10 a.m. for a cemetery walking tour. You will hear fascinating stories of the well- and lesser-known Florence people, learn what makes the Florence Cemetery unique, and see the oldest birthdate on a headstone in Arizona! Advanced registration is required; visit the museum website or call 520-868-4382 to RSVP.

Guitar recital

A guitar recital will be held from 2-3:30 p.m. Saturday at the Jacob Suter House, 270 N. Pinal St. There will be some Christmas songs in classical finger-style, and also a Christmas sing-along.

'Judge's Brother Got Away with Murder'

"How the Judge's Brother Got Away with Murder" is the next "Ernest Talks" presentation, 11 a.m. Saturday at McFarland State Historic Park, 24 W. Ruggles St. Dr. Paul Hietter, professor of history at Mesa Community College, will discuss the case and the way the behavior of those involved reflected Victorian-era attitudes. This presentation is on behalf of AZ Speaks through AZ Humanities.

---

Mark Cowling

Mark Cowling is the county reporter for PinalCentral and covers the town of Florence, San Tan Valley and the surrounding area. He can be reached at mcowling@pinalcentral.com.