

https://www.havasunews.com/news/miss-indian-arizona-hopes-to-preserve-culture-get-kids-involved/article_511c7a32-fec9-11e9-bdf2-3b1773e9644b.html

Miss Indian Arizona 2019 hopes to preserve culture, get kids involved

DAISY NELSON Today's News-Herald Nov 3, 2019 Updated Nov 5, 2019

Audriana Mitchell, 21, is Miss Indian Arizona 2019.

Courtesy of Audriana Mitchell

Audriana Mitchell leads a pretty relaxed 21-year-old life. She's a college student who enjoys spending time with her friends, loves music and is involved with clubs at her school. But there's something that sets her apart from the crowd — she's a representative for native tribes across the state.

It's one of her many responsibilities as Miss Indian Arizona 2019. When she won the title in October, it was "kind of a shock" to her.

Thank you for reading!

JOURNALISM MATTERS.
By subscribing you help keep local journalism thriving.

AWARD WINNING COVERAGE

Keeping you informed and connected to your community for more than 60 years.

Learn about your neighbors, what's going on with local governments, high school athletes, local retailer promotions, and issues affecting the place we call home.

CLICK HERE TO SUBSCRIBE

Already a print subscriber?

Log in or create a sign in and activate your digital access Activate

CLICK HERE TO LOGIN