Local Xeriscape Gardens. Great holiday getaways for landscaping ideas.

You've heard about the benefits of forest bathing? Well, in the desert we have xeriscape bathing. Arizona's many xeriscape demonstration gardens are perfect outdoor getaways during the holiday season. They provide calming places to relax, to enjoy light exercise, and to pick up pointers on how to incorporate xeriscaping ideas into your home landscape.

The Xeriscape Demonstration Garden at Mesa Community College, installed in 1989, was one of the first in the Valley.

You'll find many practical, first-hand examples of plants and plant combinations. Exploring a demonstration garden is good for the soul, good for your home garden, and – since many are free – good for the wallet, too. Get some fresh air and some fresh ideas on how to have the most incredible landscaping in your neighborhood. Many of our Water – Use It Wisely partners have demonstration gardens in their community or support their local botanical gardens.
