MESA COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S EMPLOYEE NEWSLETTER

Fall brings changes in administration and staffing

The new semester brings about several new titles and responsibilities for MCC employees. Listed below are changes for the 2006-07 school year:

Office of the Vice President, Academic Affairs, Jim Mancuso (acting):

- Ted Christensen, acting Dean of Instruction in Learning Technologies and MCC Online.
- Larry Thacker continues to serve as Dean of Instruction in Fire Science and Emergency Medical Technicians, with increased involvement in the Downtown Campus. Career and Technical programs previously overseen by Larry will be divided among the following instructional deans:
  - Rodney Holmes, Dean of Instruction in Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, will oversee Business programs.
  - Jo Wilson, Dean of Instruction at Red Mountain, will oversee Design, Family and Consumer Sciences programs.
  - Carol Achs, Dean of Instruction in Math, Sciences and Physical Education, will oversee all other Career and Technical programs.

Office of the Vice President, Administrative Services, Jerry Davis:

- Richard Cluff, new Director of Facilities.
- Rudy Mendez will continue as Evening Administrator, a position that was created and piloted last year.

New: Office of the Vice President, Development and Community Relations, Jose Leyba

The Maricopa County Community College District provides funding for this new position.

Office of the Vice President, Student Affairs:

- Dan Dunn, new Director of Athletics.
- John Mulhern, new Assistant Athletic Director.
- Spencer Peterson, acting Dean of Student Affairs, Enrollment Services.
- Wink Harner, new Coordinator of Disability Resources
