MESA COMMUNITY COLLEGE'S EMPLOYEE NEWSLETTER

Emergency Preparedness at MCC

College safety is of highest priority at Mesa Community College. In this video, Director of Public Safety, Steve Corich, outlines campus security measures and procedures to be implemented in case of emergency. He also reviews the importance of personal awareness, preparation and rehearsal, all of which contribute to a safer campus.

Please take a few minutes to review the information in the video. Faculty may also use the video at the beginning of each semester to inform students of safety measures. In addition, the video will be accessible in the near future on the Public Safety webpage.

This video is made possible through a collaborative effort of Public Safety, Media Services and Institutional Advancement.

Questions or comments can be directed to Jerry Davis, Vice President of Administrative Services, at 480-461-7410.

AriZoni Theatre Awards 2007-2008 season Mesa Community College Performing Arts

The ariZoni Theatre Awards is a not-for-profit organization devoted to promoting the visibility and growth of theatre in the Valley and Maricopa County. Each year at its annual awards ceremony, the Board bestows an outstanding contribution award and a distinguished service award to deserving individuals or organizations for their contributions to theatre. Most importantly, after completion of an exhaustive judging process, (involving close to 100 adjudicators) awards of excellence are presented to those individuals who have excelled in performance and production during the just-completed season.

Newsbytes

The MCC Children’s Center will begin enrolling new families/children for the Spring 2009 semester on Dec. 1. Currently enrolled families may reserve a spot beginning Nov. 10. The center encourages families to take advantage of the center’s evening hours to use as study time.

The MCC Children’s Center meets students’ diverse needs and goals by providing family resources and developmentally appropriate, high quality child care. The Children’s Center is licensed by the Arizona Department of Health Services and is accredited by the National Academy of Early Childhood Programs.

Hours of operation are: Monday through Thursday, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Children must be ages 3 thru 12. Visit www.mc.maricopa.edu/children for more information.

State Treasurer Dean Martin to Speak at MCC

Interested in learning about more about Arizona’s state budget? On Oct. 20, MCC will host Arizona State Treasurer Dean Martin at MCC’s Southern and Dobson campus. Martin will discuss the state budget and provide an economic forecast. Martin will also discuss the topic of “The Paradox of Affluence,” which is this year’s study topic for MCC students who are members of Phi Theta Kappa. Martin will speak from 9-10:30 a.m. and again from 11 a.m. – noon in the Navajo Room inside MCC’s Kirk Student Center. The event is open to the public.
