

In Depth FIRES of CHANGE: Art and science join forces on the North Rim The lost summer in Oak Creek Ca

Home / News / Local

Community Briefs

November 09, 2014 3:15 am

\(0\) Comments

NAU students win scholarships

The Southern Arizona Logistics Education Organization (SALEO) announced the names of the 11 students selected to receive scholarships. Winners will be studying at various schools, including Northern Arizona University. Two of the recipients are studying at Northern Arizona University: Shari R. Eraclio and Leticia A. Rodriguez. Another NAU student, Nathan Andrew Mack, now a recent graduate, won a SALEO scholarship in 2013.

These awards are for post-secondary study of logistics and related subjects and are funded by SALEO's annual scholarship tournament and by donations. The tournament's title sponsor was The Port of Tucson. The scholarship awarded to Rodriguez was donated by HVF West, which provides destruction, salvage and recycling of military parts and materials.

Roush graduates from basic training

Army Pfc. Tanner L. Roush recently graduated from Basic Combat Training at Fort Benning, Ga. During the nine-week training period, the trainee received instruction in drill and ceremony, weapons, rifle marksmanship and bayonet training, chemical warfare, field training and tactical exercises, armed and unarmed combat, military courtesy, military justice, physical fitness, first aid, and Army history, traditions and core values.

Roush is the son of Scott and Leisa Roush of Flagstaff. He is a 2011 graduate of Coconino High School.

United Way campaign in progress

Leaders of this years "Go The Distance" United Way of Northern Arizona fundraising campaign, Stacey Button, City of Flagstaff Economic Vitality Director and Heidi Hansen, Flagstaff Convention and Visitors Bureau Director, along with their campaign committee are working to achieve the goal of raising $1.5 million for UWNA.

United Ways initiatives focus on education, income, and health -- all in northern Arizona. To make a tax deductible donation, visit www.nazunitedway.org.

Forest Highlands awards scholarships

The Forest Highlands golf community in Flagstaff recently awarded a total of $18,750 in scholarships to 15 employees for 2014. The winners and their schools are: Brandon Borrego, Coconino Community College (CCC); Olivia Palomin, CCC; Michael McCabe, CCC; Jennifer Borrego, Northern Arizona University (NAU); Amy Parra, NAU; Jose Parra, Jr., NAU; Ryan Reed, NAU; Roxanne Rickert, NAU; Chase Smith, NAU; Kevin Landauer, Arizona State University; Amy Stephens, Mesa Community College; Al Charley, Yavapai Community College; Matthew Ryan, Colorado School of Mines (Golden, Colo.); Cody Ashbrook, Eastern Washington University; and Mykaela Cole, Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising (Los Angeles, Calif.).

Farinella to speak to Parkinson's Support Group

On Tuesday, Kimberly Farinella, PhD, CCC-SLP, Director/Clinical Associate Professor of the NAU Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders will be attending the Flagstaff Parkinson's

Support Group meeting representing the NAU Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic. She will be discussing the evidence-based intensive treatment approach, the Lee Silverman Voice Treatment (LSVT) LOUD.

Farinella will also discuss the funding available for clients with PD. The department is able to provide full scholarships for adult clients; the cost is $10 per session (four sessions per week, 60 minutes each) for $40 per week. LSVT is a four week program with some follow-up sessions later on. They are also able to provide treatment via Skype.

Nikkol Anderson will also be joining Farinella. She is an occupational therapist who works for the Institute of Human Development (IHD) at NAU. She will be sharing information about personal voice amplifiers, as well as other voice output devices.

The meeting will be Tuesday at at 11:30 a.m.. The support group meets every second Tuesday of each month in the meeting room at Flagstaff's East Sizzler. The meeting is free to the public. Lunch may be purchased from the Sizzler. For more information contact Teresa Peterson at 380-5168.

Family Dollar collecting donations for Boys & Girls Club

Family Dollar Stores, Inc. has announced that it is partnering with Boys & Girls Clubs of America with a four-week program called, "Open the Door for America's Kids." Beginning Nov. 1, Family Dollar customers in Flagstaff can make a monetary contribution at checkout to be donated to the Flagstaff Boys & Girls Club this holiday season.

Copyright 2014 Arizona Daily Sun. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

More Local Stories

Glen Canyon release will send Colorado River surging

Flagstaff History: Bullet-proof vest saved Flagstaff officer's life

The buzz on native bees

Local businesses offer discounts to veterans

Trending Articles and Offers

ADVERTISEMENT

Odd Trick "Fights" Diabetes

These shocking photos may suggest some unsettling things about the customs of folks in Russia.

20 Nerdy Child Stars Who Became Hotties!

Have a $500K portfolio? Ken Fisher, a 30-year Forbes columnist, has a retirement guide for you!

Recommendations

Authorities: 17 arrested in Tuba City drug sweep (AZ Daily Sun)

Federal judge tosses 10 drug cases; 18 to come (AZ Daily Sun)

On eve of NATO summit, General Dynamics lands $5.8 billion U.K. order (Fortune)

Deng scores 30, Heat roll over Mavs 105-96 (AZ Daily Sun)

Sponsored Links

Home Solar Grants

Go Solar For $0 Down With Sunrun. Free Install Upkeep & Maintenance.

