

MCC Team Shop now open for Thunderbird fans

By mynews - October 14, 2016

MCC Team Shop now open for Thunderbird fans. (MCC)

The Mesa Community College Athletic Department has announced the opening of its official online merchandise shop.

Working in conjunction with Advanced-Online, a provider of college athletic stores, the MCC shop, available at MesaTbirdsSportsTeamshop.com, features a complete line of officially-licensed merchandise with the official Thunderbird logo prominently displayed.

"With the recent success Mesa has had, both competitively and in the classroom, we wanted to give our supporters an opportunity to become personally involved," said Wayne Block, MCC coordinator of athletic marketing and public relations. "By purchasing gear at the online team shop, fans can show their Mesa pride at the same time as assisting financially."

Along with a full line of apparel in sizes from adult to infants and toddlers, the store also has literally hundreds of other items. Many items are even customizable to specific sports. Included are such things as drinkware, tote bags, golf equipment, jewelry, business accessories and much more.

All transactions are fully-secure and supported by Advanced-Online's customer support.

mynews

<http://mynewsmesa.com>
