MCC helps to fight hunger with Empty Bowls

Oct 13th, 2015 · by Mesa Independent staff report · 0 Comments

The community is encouraged to help fight hunger by being a patron at Empty Bowls art charity events being hosted at all three East Valley community colleges: Chandler-Gilbert, Mesa and Scottsdale Community Colleges. Event proceeds benefit local charities helping to fight hunger locally.

The two Mesa schools participating are:

Mesa Community College, 1833 W. Southern Ave., Mesa, at 10:30 a.m. – 3 p.m. and 5 – 8 p.m. on Oct. 21, Mesa Community College at Red Mountain, 7110 E. McKellips Rd., Mesa, at 10:30 a.m. – 3 p.m. and 5 – 8 p.m. on Nov. 3.

These Maricopa Community Colleges, in collaboration with local businesses, schools and community groups, offer Empty Bowls as a way to garner support for a national movement to feed the hungry and homeless.

For a minimum $10 donation patrons may select a one-of-a-kind ceramic bowl, handcrafted by a local artist, and dine on a simple meal.

Proceeds from MCC events will benefit Paz de Cristo Community Center which provides anti-hunger and empowerment support for the East Valley's homeless, unemployed, working poor and their families.

Empty Bowls will also be held at Paradise Valley Community College, Phoenix College, and Glendale Community College

The Mesa Independent is available in Mesa and Maricopa County
