NEWS BY YOU

Submitted by Sally Harrison, CEO of the Mesa Chamber of Commerce.

Mesa Chamber of Commerce had its annual Leadership Awards Dinner recently at the Hilton Phoenix/Mesa. This year's theme was Leaders Hitting Home Runs. Through an application process the following businesses were nominated for business of the year with the winners announced at the April dinner. Winners were:

- Small Business: Arnett Insurance. Other nominees were Ivan Martinez Photography and Red Mountain Christian Center.
- Mid-Size Business: Chester's Harley Davidson. Other nominees were Las Sendas Golf Club and Organ Stop Pizza.
- Large Business: Crescent Crown Distributing. Other nominees were FastMed Urgent Care and Superstition Springs Chrysler Jeep Dodge Ram.

Also recognized were Americopy with the Safety award and Mesa United Way as non-profit of the year. The evening concluded with George Bliss of KW Commercial taking the volunteer of the year spotlight.

In addition to recognizing business excellence, the chamber honored Johan Hernandez Diaz of Mesa High School as student of the year, Heather O'Brien of Red Mountain High School as teacher of the year, and Tawn Hauptli of Mesa Community College as professor of the year.
