MCC to hold arts center grand opening Oct. 24

Mesa Community College will celebrate the grand opening of its new Performing Arts Center at 4 p.m. Friday, Oct. 24, at the Southern and Dobson campus, 1833 W. Southern Ave. in Mesa.

The MCC Performing Arts Center is a new 462-seat theatre, educational facility and entertainment venue. It will showcase a variety of musical theatre, dance, band, orchestra, choir and performing ensembles, according to a press release.

The grand opening celebration will include a ribbon-cutting ceremony, music and dance performances, facility tours, appetizers and refreshments.

Tours, entertainment and refreshments will also be offered during an open house 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25.
