Mesa Chamber of Commerce held its annual Leadership Awards Dinner Friday, April 29, 2016 at the Hilton Phoenix/Mesa. Through an application process the following businesses were nominated for business of the year with the winners announced at the April 29 dinner.

Small Business Nominees: HP2 Promotions, Ike’s Love and Sandwiches, and Lohman Company, PLLC. HP2 Promotions won for Small Business.

Medium-Sized Business Nominees: Country Inn and Suites, Longbow Golf Club and Unique Companies. Longbow Golf Club won for Medium-Sized business.

Large Business Nominees: Eastmark and The Boeing Company. The Boeing Company won for Large business.

Other recognition was awarded to Outgoing 2015 Board Chairman, Joe Holmes of Heal the Hero and 2016 Ambassador of the Year, Melissa Moy of Dynasty Insurance and Legal Documents for their dedication and friendship to the Mesa Chamber.

Marc Community Resources, Inc. was recognized as the Non-Profit of the Year for their good work in our community, Valley Express Towing and Auto Repair received the CopperPoint Insurance Companies Safety Award and Jodi Sorrell with the City of Mesa received a Special Recognition for her work on bringing light rail to downtown Mesa. The evening concluded with Jo Wilson of Benedictine Mesa taking the Volunteer of the Year spotlight. “We are so proud of the accomplishments of these businesses and leaders. All of our members are winners to us.” said Sally Harrison, President of the Mesa Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to recognizing business excellence, we honored Kasandra Zapien with Mountain View High School as our Student of the Year; Maureen Magnusson of Westwood High School as our Teacher of the Year, and Dr. Andrew T. Holycross of Mesa Community College as our Professor of the Year.
