

Scottsdale training hosts fall fashion show

Scottsdale Training and Rehabilitation Services is showcasing the shining stars in its program by hosting the 3rd Annual Fall Fashion Show and Awards Brunch from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, Oct. 20.

STARS, a non-profit organization that has been committed to providing services to adults with disabilities throughout the metro Phoenix area since 1973, will present the 2012 Fashion Show at Scottsdale Fashion Square.

The show will feature the latest trends and fashions modeled by adults and teens in the STARS program, as well as lend an opportunity to celebrate the year's success and award those in the community for their contributions over brunch.

The fashion show will be produced and styled by Tanya Barnes-Matt, a prominent Valley Event producer.

Ms. Barnes-Matt will also be enlisting the support of her students from Mesa Community College to help with the event. Dillard's at Scottsdale Fashion Square will be providing the hot fall fashions for this show.

"This fashion show allows the adults and teens in our program a chance to shine in the spotlight as they take the runway in trend-setting style. We are grateful for the partnership with Scottsdale Fashion Square and Dillard's as it is important to engage these adults with disabilities in our community," said Jennifer Dangremond, director of development for STARS.

Tickets are $50. For more information call 480-994-5704.

Tickets will be for sale on the day of event, subject to capacity.
